

Sam's Football Stories, Set B

There are six stories in Set B of Sam's Football Stories. Here is a brief synopsis of each:

The First Match

Sam is totally football crazy. Now the Eddie Ford has agreed to coach Sam and his friends, they have arranged a friendly match against Parton Rovers. Sam and Danny have made the team, but Sam has practised so much he can't play any more.

Trouble for Foz

With the first match being a 1–1 draw success, Eddie has managed to get the Newton Devils into a league. He has picked the new team, but some of the boys are unhappy about it. Foz and David argue, and as a result there is a scuffle.

What about the Girls?

Sam overhears something really odd, some of the girls want to play football! This is worrying. "Girls and football? It's about as natural as me eating salad!" is Danny's comment. Then some of the girls turn up to watch the away match, in all that rain too!

What's Worrying Eddie?

Sam and Danny arrive a school to find Liza, Janey and Fran already playing footie with the other boys. The boys are surprised at just how well the girls play. At the Devil's first league home match, Eddie is seen talking to someone. Something isn't right.

Nowhere to Train

It's bad news for Eddie, Sam and the boys: the scout hut and field has been sold. From next month they will have nowhere to train. The Newton Devils have already won two matches and draw two in the league, with more to play.

Are We the Champions?

With nowhere to train but having come second in the league, Eddie has enters the Devils in a tournament. When a new training ground is found, everybody pitches in to help give the hut a face-lift. It is good news; everybody is happy.
