

The secret shed

Write a story about a someone who finds something rather special in a garden outbuilding.

The outbuilding was half hidden by climbing roses at the bottom of my Grandad's large garden. I had never noticed it before today. I pushed on the door, but it was tightly locked. I just had to find the key so I could find out what was inside.

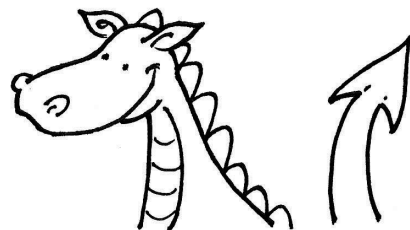

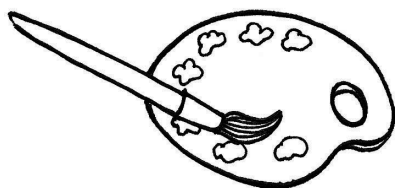

Where did I look for the key?

What did the key look like?

Idea: Think of three places.

What was in the shed?

Ideas:

What happened next? Then? After that?

- Ideas:
- your painting came alive
 - the mirror was magic and made you different
 - the dragon blew a fireball and caused a bonfire
 - the dragon gave you a ride

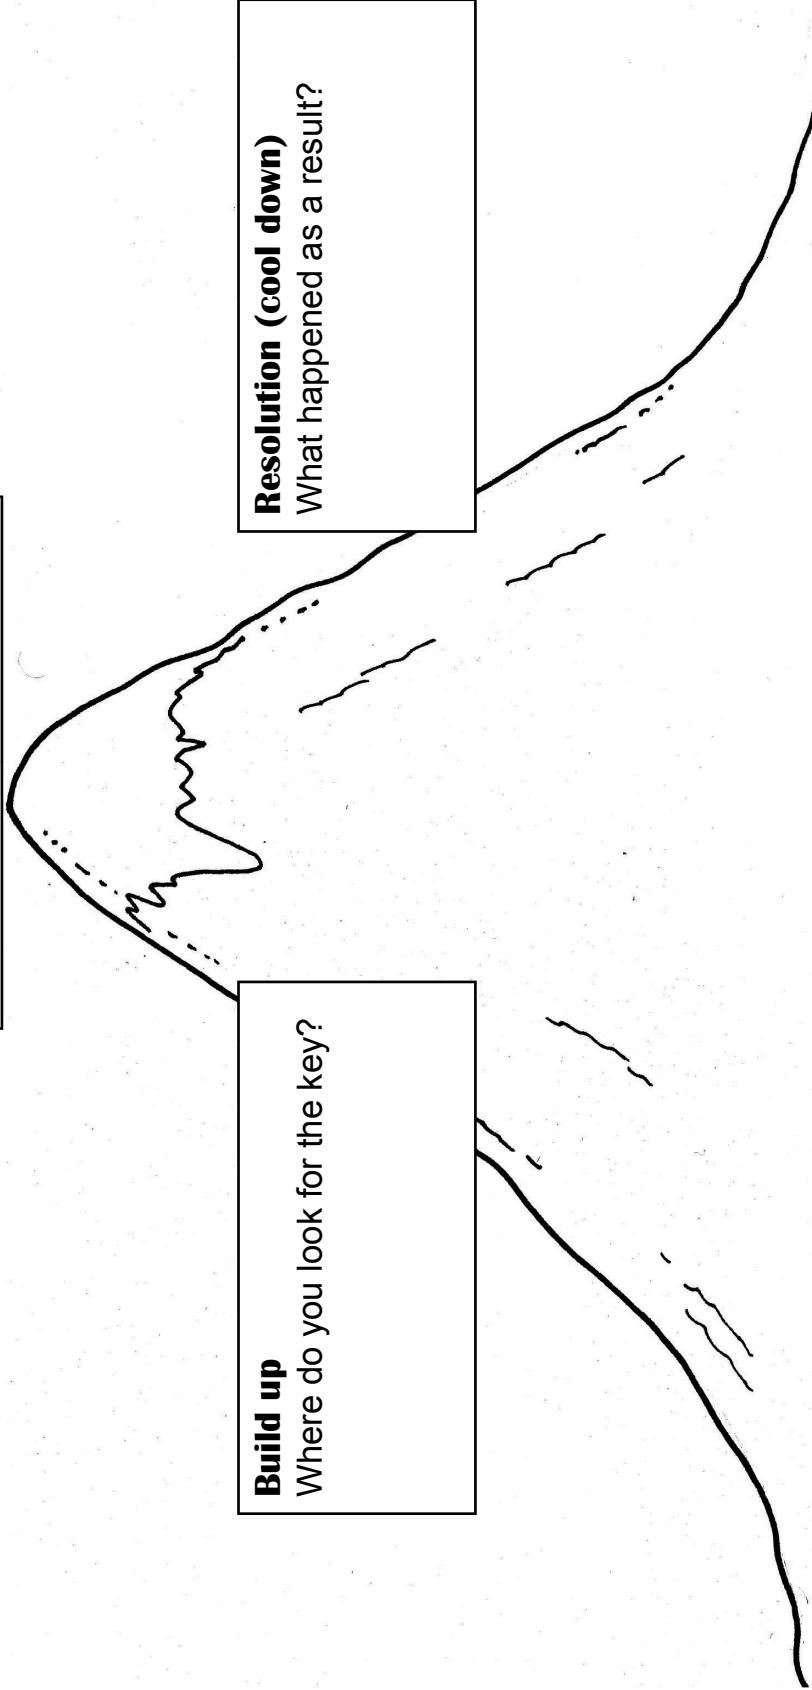

What happened at the end?

The secret shed

Put a short draft of your main ideas into each box using the story mountain format.

Climax (the problem)
What was in the shed?

Build up
Where do you look for the key?

Resolution (cool down)
What happened as a result?

Opening
Describe the shed

Ending
Final thoughts.